

INTMD 7820: Research Problems in Nephrology

Department permission required prior to registration.
Retroactive registration is not permitted!

Course Director:	Josephine Abraham MD
Course Coordinator:	Joanne Downey - joanne.downey@hsc.utah.edu , 801-585-7018 Shaylee Tulane – shaylee.tulane@utah.edu , 385-401-7091
Grading Scheme:	Pass/Fail
Prerequisites:	None
Description:	An independent research project arranged between an individual student and individual mentor. Proposed research should apply the scientific method and be hypothesis driven, with the expectation of a significant contribution by the student to a project for suitable for co-authorship on an abstract at a national meeting or a manuscript publication.
Course Syllabus:	Not available
Length:	4 credits <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Credit granted on expectation of 40 hours effort is equivalent to 1 credit• 2 credits effort would be appropriate for data analysis contribution for an abstract• 4 credits effort would be appropriate for major contribution to a manuscript• 6+ credits effort would be appropriate for publication
Course Classification:	Research Elective
Visiting Student Info:	Restricted to UUSOM students